How to Read Your Horoscope

A beginner's guide to understanding your Vedic Astrology report.

1. The Birth Chart (Rasi Chakra)

The square chart represents the sky at your exact time of birth. In the South Indian style, the 12 boxes (houses) are always fixed. The top-left box is Pisces (Meenam), and the signs go clockwise. 'Lagna' (Ascendant) is your starting point—this is the 1st House, representing 'You'.

Zodiac Signs (Rasi)

Meenam	Mesham	Vrishabh am	Mithuna m
Kumbha m			Karkatak am
Makara m			Simham
Dhanus u	Vrischika	Thula	Kanya

2. The Houses (Bhavas)

Counting clockwise from your Lagna, each house rules a part of life. 1st: Self, 2nd: Wealth, 4th: Mother/Home, 5th: Children, 7th: Marriage, 9th: Luck/Father, 10th: Career, 11th: Gains.

Example: Finding the 12 Houses

12	1 (Lagna)	2	3
11			4
10			5
9	8	7	6

3. The Planetary Positions

The planets (Grahas) move through these signs. Their placement in a specific sign and house shapes your life's events. Benefic planets (Jupiter, Venus) bring ease, while Malefic planets (Saturn, Mars) bring challenges and growth.

4. The Dasha System (Timeline)

Vedic astrology uses Vimshottari Dasha, a 120-year cycle of planetary periods. Your life is divided into phases ruled by different planets. The planet ruling your current phase strongly influences your current life events.
